BARBERA

Isola dei Nuraghi I.G.T.

Isola dei Nuraghi I.G.T. is a wine produced in the Sardinia region, specifically in the area of the Nuraghi. It is a Barbera wine, which is known for its deep red color and robust flavor. The wine is produced from the Barbera grape variety, which is one of the most important in Sardinia. The Isola dei Nuraghi I.G.T. is a Denominazione di Origine Controllata (D.O.C.G.) wine, which means it is of high quality and is produced according to strict regulations. The wine is produced by Tenute Santamaria, a family-run winery that has been producing wine in Sardinia for over 100 years. The wine is available in a 75 cl bottle, which is the standard size for most wines in Italy.
